

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 13, 2011

PC LIBRARY DIRECTOR NAMED SD LIBRARIAN OF THE YEAR

ABERDEEN, SD: Lea Briggs, Director, Presentation College Library was named Librarian of the Year by the South Dakota Library Association during the Association's annual conference October 5-7.

Lea has contributed to libraries via her role at Presentation College following several years as a staff person and librarian at Northern State University. In addition, she has served in her state professional organization (SDLA) and as an American Library Association councilor. Locally, she has served as coordinator of the "Empty Bowls" project in Aberdeen.

Karen Maier, PC's Technical Services/Librarian nominated Briggs for the award. "People have no choice but to learn from Lea," says Maier. "She is a born educator and trainer and has a very thorough knowledge of librarianship as it exists today as well as how it is evolving for future generations."