The image of the lantern has come to represent offering a light in a dark place. Nano Nagel, the foundress of the Presentation Sisters, was often seen working late into the night, guided by her lantern, as she provided education and care to the poor and needy in Ireland. Nano Nagle serves as an example of using your light to offer improvement and service to those in need. Describe how you believe your Presentation College education will help you and how you will carry your light forward.

Warren & Mildred Brodt

A key attribute of a Presentation College nursing education is the idea that caring is a necessary component to treating the whole person. Describe what you believe "treating the whole person" means and how you believe you would foster a caring environment.

Patricia Donnelly Endowed Nursing Scholarship

Elaborate on your professional objectives within the nursing field and how you may benefit from receiving the scholarship.

Melissa Tennant Memorial Scholarship
